

Sykesville Police Department Log
Week of March 8 – March 14, 2007

March 8, 2007

Officer responded to 7100 block of Wimmer Lane for suspicious white male seen walking towards Bloomfield Park. Entire area was searched with no results.

March 9, 2007

Officer responded to 7400 block of Jennifer Way for report of disorderly conduct by juvenile who threw snowball striking school bus windshield. Bus had 20 children on board. Juvenile's mother advised son not to do it again or be charged; advised a family conference would be arranged regarding son's behavior.

Officer assisted MSP with 41-mile vehicle pursuit beginning on Rt. 26 west of Johnsville Road through Baltimore and Howard counties. Stop sticks were employed at I-70 and Marriottsville Road. SPD assisted with stop and arrest.

Officer responded to 700 block of Central Avenue for panic alarm at home recently burglarized. Brinks Home Security Systems installed system's hardwire and informed homeowner how to push button. However, when technicians tested system, it sent panic alarm due to button having been pushed. No action taken.

Officer responded to Main Street and Baldwin for report of suspicious vehicle parked nearby. Incident cleared.

March 11, 2007

Officer assisted at 7400 block of Springfield Avenue in serving warrant out of Worcester County for Violation of Probation. Address checked and yielded negative results.

Officer responded to 6600 block of Church Street for domestic assault. Upon arrival, assisted MSP as needed until cleared.

March 12, 2007

Officer responded to Route 32 and Sandosky Road for accident with personal injury.

Officer responded to 400 Block of Oklahoma Avenue for vehicle parked near/on resident's property. Vehicle checked for stolen tags; produced no results. Vehicle's owner resides at 7500 block of Braemer Court, Sykesville Maryland. Officer attempted to contact owner to no avail; left note at residence advising not to park on that property or vehicle could be towed. No further police action necessary.

Officer responded to 7400 block of Second Avenue for suspicious condition. Postmaster stated one of his carriers found possible explosive device in mailbox.

Sykesville Police Department Log
Week of March 8 – March 14, 2007

State Fire Marshals also responded to report. Once on scene it was determined device was BMX cycle pad. No device, no threat; no further action required.

Officer responded to 500 Block of Manor Road for 911 hang-up call. Made contact with resident who informed officer there was no problem. Everything in house appeared fine; malfunctioning phone. No further action required.

Officers assisted MSP at Route 32 and Circle Drive for report of suspicious person walking on Route 32. Contact made with subject; determined subject was patient at Springfield Hospital. Hospital's security took custody of subject and transported back to the hospital.

Officer responded to 7600 block of Schoolhouse Road for medical emergency; mental transport.

Officer responded to 700 block of Obrecht Road for hit and run that occurred at Route 32 and West Friendship Road, Howard County. After striking vehicle belonging to person contacting SPD, other vehicle fled northbound into Carroll County. MSP advised and referred caller to Howard County Police Department.

March 13, 2007

Officer responded to 400 block of Hawk Ridge Lane for 911 hang-up call. Resident stated she accidentally hit the "911" button. Nothing unusual observed or detected.

Officer responded to Schoolhouse Road for report of juveniles playing basketball and making noise. Caller also stated juveniles may be smoking marijuana. Officer approached group on foot and determined no indication of CDS. No violations.

March 14, 2007

Officer responded to Shell Station/Little George's parking lot at intersection of Sandosky Road and Route 32 for unresponsive individual in yellow Ford Mustang. Motorist, concerned of individual's welfare, attempted to wake him up by knocking on window. Individual was uniformed Sergeant with D.O.C. who worked double shift and wanted to catch nap before driving home. Checked ok.

Officer assisted MSP with auto and deer accident at Obrecht and White Rock Roads. Disposition of deer made.

Officer assisted MSP at 900 block of Lee Avenue for street fight in progress. Both parties had left area upon officer's arrival; no one interested in pursuing incident.

Sykesville Police Department Log
Week of March 8 – March 14, 2007

Officer assisted MSP at 900 block of Marimich Court, #D, for violent domestic in progress between mother and daughter. Two parties separated and interviewed alone. MSP arrived; turned daughter over to her father, pending charges.

March 15, 2007

Officer responded to Sykesville Baseball Clubhouse for burglar alarm. Accidental activation by key holder (Baseball President).