

Sykesville Police Log April 16th – 25th, 2007

April 16, 2007

Officer responded to 700 block of Central Avenue for report of burglar alarm. Upon arrival at residence, officer noted basement was door closed, not dead bolted, and no sign of forced entry. Officer cleared house, dead bolted basement door and left note for homeowner advising to contact alarm company.

Officer dispatched by MSP to local business for report of burglar alarm. Perimeter was secured and it was noted floors were cleaned and buffed; scent of cleaning wax detected through gap in door.

April 17, 2007

Officer responded to 7500 block of Main Street in regards to burglar alarm. A check of the business was conducted; no signs of forced entry. No further action taken.

Officer responded to 7500 block of Braemar Court for report of suspicious entry into residence. Homeowner arrived at residence and found front door opened. Complainant advised officer she locked door and set the alarm. No sign of forced entry; interior/exterior check conducted. Complainant checked for missing/stolen items; none found. No further action taken.

April 18, 2007

Officer assisted MSP in report of trespassing incident at Main Street and 4th Street.

Officer responded to Becks' parking lot for report of accident-related incident. Individual backed her vehicle out of parking space, striking another vehicle parked directly behind.

April 19, 2007

Officer responded to 7400 block of Brandenburg Circle for report of several juveniles playing in middle of road obstructing traffic. Juveniles were identified and sent home.

April 20, 2007

Officer responded to 7400 Village Road for domestic assault case.

Officer assisted MSP in responding to 300 block of Obrecht Road for report of possible burglary. Homeowner came home to find entire house flooded and destroyed by water damage and requested to have residence checked for signs of forced entry. No crime committed; civil issue with builder and homeowner.

Officer responded to 7500 block of Main Street for report of vandalism complaint.

April 21, 2007

Officer responded to 7100 block of Wimmer Lane for report of suspicious person. Complainant was involved in verbal altercation with truck driver over traffic-related issue within Sykesville jurisdiction. Driver left vicinity and was last seen on Obrecht Road.

Sykesville Police Log
April 16th – 25th 2007

Officer responded to Jeroby Road for report of fireworks complaint. Area checked and a suspect vehicle was located. No further action.

April 22, 2007

Officer responded to 7100 block of Harlan Lane for report of domestic dispute

Officer responded to 7500 block of Main Street for report of noise complaint. Apartment renter was advised to quiet down and go inside; she complied. Noise started up again. Renter was contacted again and advised of disturbing the peace.

Officer responded to 7200 block of Norris Avenue for report of animal in house.

April 23, 2007

Officer responded to College Avenue and CSX Tracks for report of serious brush fire. Upon arrival, fire was on north side of tracks, 150 yards east of Rt. 32. Fire uncontrolled and climbing hill toward houses on College Road. Officer directed Fire Department to location and fire brought under control. Cause of fire undetermined.

Officer responded to 7400 Village Road for report of cardiac arrest.

Officer responded to 6900 block of Warfield Avenue for report of accidental damage to vehicle.

Officer responded to 7400 block of Village Road for report of lost property.

April 24, 2007

Officer responded to Village Road on two occasions for report of domestic dispute.